The Embassy of Romania to the Republic of India presents its compliments to the Embassy of Nepal to India and has the honour to inform about the scholarship opportunities for Nepali students. Each year, the Romanian Government, through the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, provides a number of scholarships to citizens from non-EU countries. Only candidates having good results in education, respectively an average of the study years, for the last graduated school, of at least 7 (seven) out of 10 (ten), corresponding to the scoring system in Romania or the "Good" score, are eligible.

However, at PhD level, applicants can also opt for a program in English or a foreign language set by the doctoral school. A preparatory year in Romanian is also granted prior to enrolling in the study program of choice, for those not speaking Romanian language. The required documents include diplomas, transcripts, birth certificate and passport, CV – all described in the application process.
