

Template of Self-Monitoring Report to be Submitted by Clients/Projects/Organizations with approved BES/IEE/EIA

1. Summary of Report

2. Abbreviations/Acronyms

3. Table of Contents

4. Chapter I: Introduction

a. Background: Must include all the details regarding the project location with latitude and longitude, project information and other related information with salient features presented in table.

b. Objectives: The specific objective of this study is to monitor environmental parameters to be affected by the construction/operation of (types of projects). The specific objective includes;

- To study the environmental factors/parameters affected by construction/operation of (types of projects) and effectiveness of mitigation measures recommended in EMP by approved BES/IEE/EIA
- To test environmental parameters in accordance with monitoring plan as recommended in approved BES/IEE/EIA
- To ensure the environmental compliance

c. Methods/Methodology of Study: Must include all the methods used to collect the data related with objectives of study.

5. Chapter II: Observations and Results

Must present all the required information that is recommended by approved BES/IEE/EIA reports in text and table format. Also, include the monitoring of environmental standards relevant to the project/industry as published in Nepal Gazette for Air Quality (Brick Industry, Incinerator, Cement and Crusher, Boiler etc.), Water Quality (Generic and Specific Standards for Non-Alcoholic drinks, Pharmaceuticals, Paint, Dairy, Sugar, Soap, Textile, Leather, Vegetable Oil, Oil and Ghee etc.) and National Ambient Noise Quality Standard, 2012.

6. Chapter 3: Conclusions

Must be concise and includes the findings of the study, environmental parameters that are in compliance and non-compliance and the commitments and plan to improve the non-compliance environmental parameters.

7. Annexes:

- a. Lab Report
- b. Photographs
- c. Other related information